

We believe the FCC is going in the wrong direction. We believe that there should be less consolidation, not more. Currently we get the same TV, radio, and Newspapers news from fewer and fewer sources than ever before. This allows for fewer diverse viewpoints which is detrimental to our democracy. If competition is good for a free market, it should be good for the marketplace of ideas too. Please do not allow any more consolidation in any of the different media outlets.